In Retail, as in Life, Green is God

Greens isn't the kind of place you want to work. You think working at a gas station is bad? Maybe in fast food? Those are the jobs that jobs at Greens wish they were.

For Dylan, it's intolerable. Just because the Fed decided that his online marketing career was "illegal," he's now been forced to work at the lowest of the low: an organic health food store in one of the poorest, most dangerous neighborhoods in America.

Until he realizes there's no reason he has to give up his entrepreneurial roots, or especially his buds. Because when the customers you serve are as dumb and high as the ones at Greens, what barrier is honesty to selling a little product?

Smok'em if you got'em.
